The 2015 Pinot Noir Rosenau B has a clear, dark purple color followed by a deep, pure and flinty bouquet of ripe dark and red fruits intermixed with herbal aromas. This is very well defined, complex and noble on the nose. Full-bodied, rich and intense, with concentrated and juicy but fine and well-structured fruit (cherry, dark berry) along with fine tannins, this is a remarkably elegant and finessed Pinot Noir from Lucerne. The finish is tight, clear and fresh thanks to the ripe and fresh tannins (whole clusters here?) as well as the transparency and purity of this gorgeous Pinot Noir that is cultivated on sandy silt soils over molasse. Tasted in Zurich, August 2017.

The 2015 Pinot Noir Rosenau Spissen has a dark purple-ruby color and opens with a lovely pure, aromatic, delicate and floral nose of perfectly ripe dark cherries and berries intertwined with flinty/spicy terroir and some toasty aromas. Full-bodied, round and fresh on the palate, with a silky texture, ripe, intense fruit flavors and nice freshness, this is a very elegant, fresh and stimulating Pinot Noir with medium complexity. It drinks very well already and can age for a decade. Price: 36 CHF. Tasted in Zurich, August 2017.
